

---

---

Iranian New Year's Day (Noruz)

نوروز مبارک

Noruz is the first day of the Iranian calendar and the most important Iranian celebration of the year. It is celebrated on March equinox, the precise astronomical start of spring.

This year at University of Hawaii at Manoa, we will celebrate Noruz, sharing some information about this ancient Iranian tradition and reading Persian poetry.

A light traditional meal and nuts and cookies will be served.

Friday, March 21, 2014, 4pm-7pm
412 Queen Lili`uokalani Center, University of Hawaii at Manoa

Persian Language, Linguistics, and Culture Program—an exciting initiative made possible through a grant from and in partnership with
Roshan Cultural Heritage Institute (<http://www.roshan-institute.org>)

Department of Indo-Pacific Languages and Literatures
College of Languages, Linguistics, and Literature
University of Hawaii at Manoa

---

---