Persian Language, Linguistics, and Culture Program is an exciting initiative made possible through a grant from and in partnership with Roshan Cultural Heritage Institute (<http://www.roshan-institute.org>).

Persian courses will be offered in Fall 2015 with opportunities for financial support for the students.

For more information please contact Dr. Ladan Hamedani, Roshan Institute Instructor in Persian Language and Culture, College of Languages, Linguistics, and Literature, Department of Indo-Pacific Languages and Literatures:

hamedani@hawaii.edu (808) 956-3552 <http://ipll.manoa.hawaii.edu/persian/>

 Persian courses may provide credits for Persian-speaking students who are in undergraduate and graduate programs at the University of Hawaii to fulfill second language requirement.
